

Ref. :

Dt. 29-08-2022

Public Notice

This is to bring to the public notice that in the case no 43 of 2014 at Additional District Judge Varanasi an interim injunction was granted in favor of Cinni Foundation Trust (through its Chairman and Managing Trustee late Ravindra Kumar Sah and Anjan Narain Singh) Against Dynasty India and its proprietor Bhola Nath Singh restraining them for using the Trade Mark Cinni in any form, order dated 03-02-2017.

Cinni Foundation Trust is the owner of Cinni Trademark through assignment deed by Raj Kumar Sah and Sons.

Bhola Nath Singh proprietor Dynasty India is fully aware that he and his firm are restrained from using Trademark Cinni in any form but inspite of this he is cheating and miss guiding the general public that he has a licensee to use Cinni Trademark which is completely false therefore through this public notice we would like to clarify that any misdeeds, cheating or forgery done by Mr Bhola Nath Singh by portraying himself as licensee of Trademark Cinni shall bear no legal consequences on the Cinni Foundation Trust the rightful owner of Trademark / Copyrights Cinni.

Any Distributor, manufacturer, dealer etc. assisting Bhola Nath Singh by cheating the customers of Trademark Cinni shall have to bear legal consequences.

Managing Trustee

Anjan Narain Singh